To Officer in Charge of Base Records.

Sir,

I was Recommended for a Military Medal also a Foreign Medal about July and August 1918. I was then sent back to Australia and heard no more about it, until the other day, and I met a Sergeant and a couple of mates, they were on Parade when it was read out, that I was to receive a Claur-de-Guerre, so I thought you might be able to let me know whether it is all-right, if so, I would be very glad if you would forward the same on to me at the address which I will put down, thanking you for any trouble which it will put you to.
